This book is dedicated to the people of America: the people past, present, and future whose dreams have helped shape this country. Because this is the nation's two hundredth birthday, we look back at the events which formed this country. Among these, we flashback on the revolution for freedom and the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

There is no greater statement of American purpose than in the single sentence of Jefferson's document that came to be called the Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." All of what we are is rooted there in one way or another.

We have our roots not only in our country, but also in Perry High School: roots that have grown and been strengthened through knowledge gained here. We will continue to grow in acceptance and understanding and look forward to the challenges of the future, just as the first Americans met the challenges of establishing roots in a new country.

Kim,
Well this year is just about over and I'm really glad. I hope you move to Enid this summer. That's a lot closer than Oklahoma City. I wish you wouldn't have had to move in the first place. You are going to have to come to Perry a lot this summer so I can see ya. You are going to have to come here at least once for sure to sign my annual. You are a really sweet girl who I like a lot. You are a lot of fun to be with and I hope I can be with you a lot soon. Well I guess I've just about filled this page as much as I can so I guess I better quit. I didn't think I could ever ^{fill} this small page but I come and see me soon.
Love
Always

STUDENT COUNCIL PLANS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES . . .

The 1975-76 Student Council took on a whole new look this year with Rick "Fro" Eaton serving as President. This year the Student Council tried diligently to get the coke machines and Sadie Hawkins day back. There were many hotly debated meetings over these two items. The Student Council sponsored dress-up days, backwards week, western day, the "Mad Monster Party," and many other things. The meetings were "unique", they ranged from long and drawn out meetings on the welfare of our dear PHS, to peek-a-boo games between Hodge and Johnson. No Sir!, the 1975-76 Student Council will be remembered for many years to come.

AFTER EIGHT YEARS THE SENIORS FLASHBACK ON SOMEONE THAT...

- made us sacrifice elementary recesses for band practice
- let us feel like a symphony when we played "King of the Road"
- made us resemble "ice cream men" with our black and white uniforms
- organized the first band dance which was held in the band room
- received his first pair of "sex socks" on his birthday
- gave us our first complex by constantly calling us "weinies"
- made us march behind the horses in Junior High
- forgot HIS music for Tri-State contest
- beats metal music stands until they crater
- got accused of getting his hair fixed every night
- catches girls in the boys bathroom
- busted his_____sliding down an icy hill after a pet parade
- drags us out of bed in mid-winter for early morning band practice
- made us all late for early morning band by running out of gas in the old yellow bus
- makes his own extension chairs -- and then falls off of them
- arranges for the whole band to go to Washington D.C.
- gives us two minutes to change clothes and beat the tardy bell
- lays down on the practice field just to watch our feet
- spends all year preparing for the annual band dance special awards
- has the motto, "The only mistake I ever made was when I thought I was wrong!"

AND THEY REMEMBER THE MAN THEY STARTED OUT WITH IN THE FIFTH GRADE --

Although the girls basketball team was young this year, togetherness proved to be the cementing force.

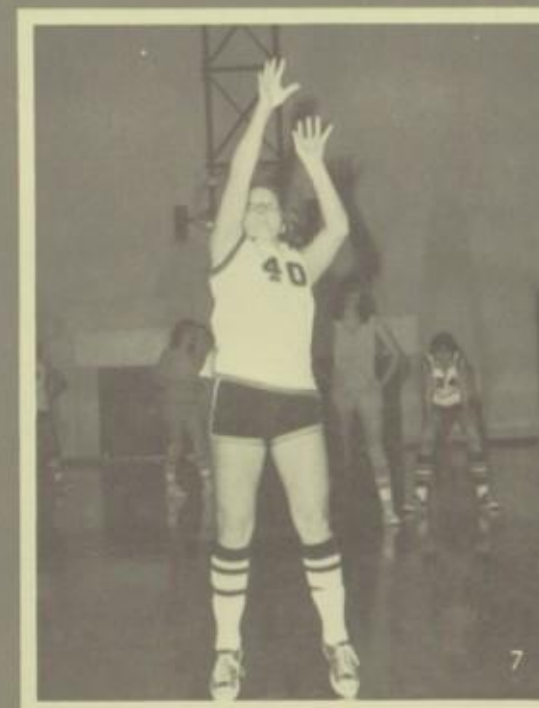

As the girls learned together, practiced together, played together, won together and lost together, they began to unify and strengthen. They had a goal: To prove to themselves... to their coach... to their school... and to their fans, that they too could compete.

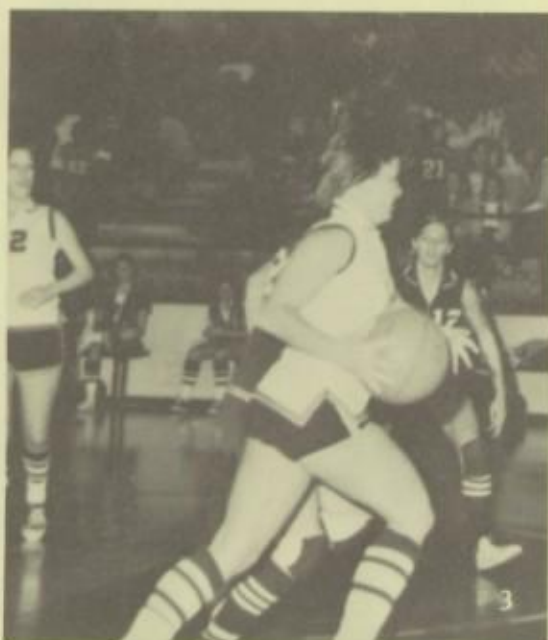

Going against taller, tougher, and talented teams, the Maroon girls proved that no one wanted to win more than they.

At times coming from behind in the final minutes of an exciting game proved that this was a determined team. Their hustle and enthusiasm etched a place in the hearts of many fans who turned out to support them.

SP-IR-IT, YOU'VE GOT SPIRIT?

Every Maroon fan puts out effort to make something of himself. Whether it be making spirit posters, forming a jock club or attending the athletic and band events each is a contribution toward school spirit. This spirit grows throughout the year and brings friends together, all sharing responsibilities and growing in the process. As Maroons we will keep the spirit alive and look forward to the challenges of each new year.

WELL LET'S HEAR IT!

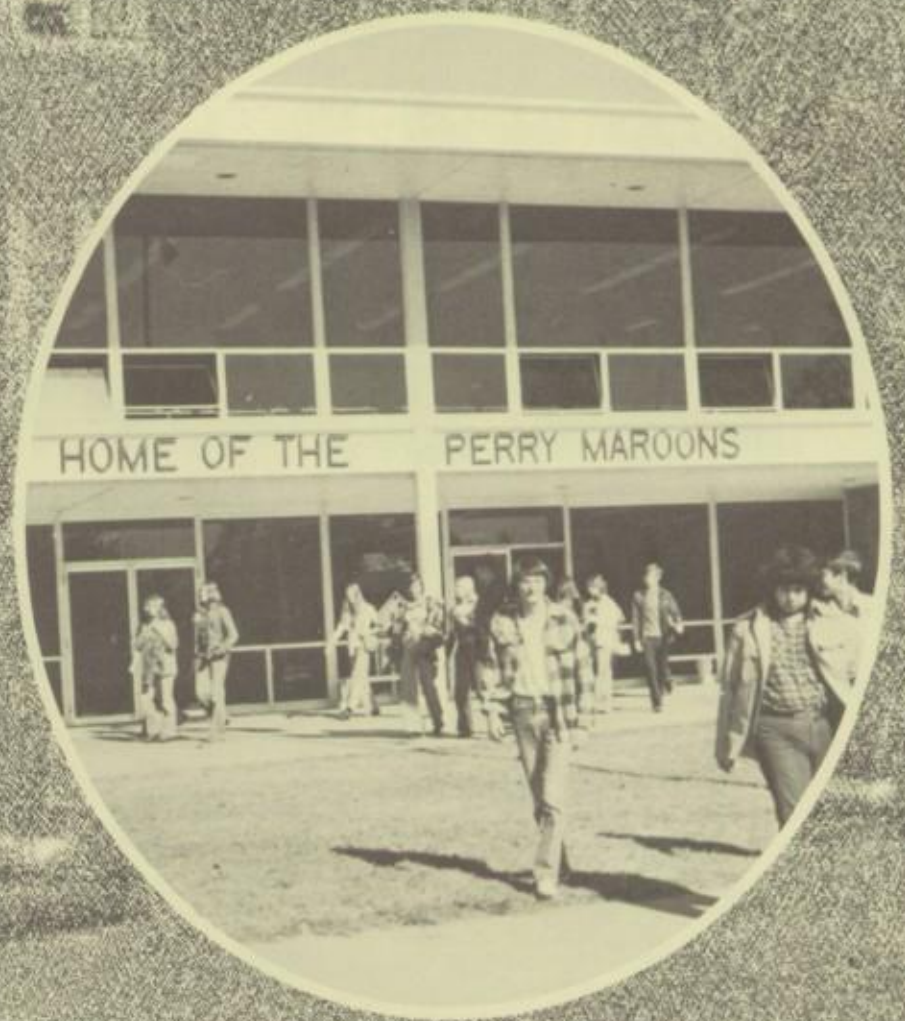

Kim,

I Just want you to know I Consider You my Best friend. I can't wait till this summer when you come to stay with me. It took a lot of nerve to ask Tim to sign you Annual & you should be very proud of me. Every body here ~~misses~~ misses you and wants you to move back. But I'm sure you wouldn't want to move back to Penny Americk. Enid awaits your Annual I hope you make there its 20 whole miles closer. Well I'd Better Stop Before the wind starts blowing here. I miss you very much and I know you know this but I Love Ya.

WE ARE SENIORS. We've endured hassles, decisions. We've changed, matured. Our opinions and attitudes have been influenced by friends, classmates, teachers. Hopefully, we've learned more than English or chemistry or how to drive. We've learned to live with others. Our last year together marked by renewed spirit. Last-minute urgency in everything we do--The last must be the best. Does this "spirit" go deeper than the wild noise at the games? Have we spent these years to our advantage? Do we care about others? Their feelings, hopes, dreams? Let's make this the Spirit of '76.

Class

The Future Of Tomorrow Is

In 1963, hundreds of little boys and girls left the security of mom and home for the unknown experiences of the American educational system.

FIRST, CAME KINDERGARTEN:
And there were-- little girls chasing and kissing boys, kids stealing dimes out of other's penny loafers, the first days of intergrated classrooms, kids making mud pies and eating paste, graduation exercises and evan a diploma.
THEN CAME
ELEMENTARY:
And there were-- bathrooms in all the
classrooms,
the first glimpses of the truth about Santa, the Easter Bunny, and the Tooth Fairy, girls wearing shorts under their dresses so they could play on the monkey bars, being sent out to the hall for talking, the bell on Mrs. Manning's desk, recesses and jump rope, being patrol and wearing a bright white belt and a badge, kick-ball games and four square, learning to write with a pen instead of a pencil, watching films in the Cafeteria,
square dancing in the gyms, fights behind IGA grocery store.
THEN CAME JUNIOR HIGH:
And there were--

"TURK", not being able to figure out locker combinations, hordes of kids walking to the nearest grocery store or Dairy Queen for lunch instead of eating in the Cafeteria,
first crushes,
Mrs. Duncan's butterflies, getting lost in the halls, listening to gossip in girls P.E., dressing up and going to the Bowling Alley, buying elevator tickets, the annual bean supper, Mr. Leonard's History

notebooks.
THEN CAME HIGH SCHOOL:
And there were-- signmaking parties, getting your car shaving creamed, painting on the water tower, working at the spaghetti supper and carnival, turning on the school lights for the 20 mile zone, broken coke bottles on the parking lot,

detention hall,
pep rallies, clubs, sports events, and all the "extra stuff", having cars and no more "borrowed transportation", proms and class rings, graduation cards and parties, Mrs. Tucker's help nights, green eyes and thrill hill, being in a coronation, bugging the Sophomores about being "GREEN", and being PROUD to be a PERRY MAROON, not wanting to go, but glad your out.

After graduation some plans of the Class of '76 are:
to be rich,
to be famous,

commercial
art,
secretary,
architect,
computer programmer,
nurse,
teacher,
model,
economist,
accountant,
engineer,
wife,
cycle-business,
advertiser,
truck, driver, aircraft mechanic,
coach,
farmer,
carpenter, fashion
designer, etc.

Many plan to:

Enter a Senior college-22 Enter a Junior college-14
Work-12
Marry and work-14
Military-3
Business-1
Housewife-3
Uncertain-2

On May 18, Seniors met for the last time at graduation exercises as 95 received diplomas from Perry High School.

The 12-13 years of schooling in Perry have shaped the lives of the Class of '76.

They have received an education plus compiled experiences and made friends they will never forget.

Hey somebody-thanks for the memories.

JUNIORS SPEND MANY HOURS PREPARING FOR THE PROM

Leading the class of '77 is Annette Brorson, Secretary; Kelli Schwandt, President; Cindy Hodge, Vice President; Regina Randall, Treasurer.

The Junior class has been active throughout 1976. They have shared their school spirit with upper and lower classmen and they combined efforts to make money for the annual Jr. -Sr. Prom. Profits from their bakesale and spaghetti supper paid for a memorable "last Prom" for the Seniors.
